OPENING NIGHT FOREWORD FROM BEN KEITH

As sponsor for the eighth consecutive year, it is my great pleasure to welcome you all to the final of the Star Sports and TRC English Greyhound Derby on what promises to be an exceptional night of racing.

I have long held a passion for the sport and to me the Derby is the jewel in the crown of greyhound racing, so I am immensely proud to be involved and associated with it. Each of the 6 finalists have earned their place in tonight's final and were amongst 179 greyhounds who originally started out on this journey some 6 weeks ago. The winners' name will go down in the history books as well as being engraved on the highly sought after trophy awarded for this most prestigious of events. I'm especially thankful to the runners and their connections who have travelled over from Ireland to support us.

We, as an industry, are grateful for the wonderful kennel hands who care for these fantastic dogs each and every day, so by way of thanks I have arranged a £25 cash prize and rosette for the best turned-out greyhound in each of this evening's races, you are all amazing.

I was incredibly saddened to hear of the recent passing of Stan Kennett, a close friend of Maurice Newman who also sadly passed away 2 years ago, both Stan & Maurice were good friends to me and many others within the sport and I'm sure you will join me in paying your respects to these wonderful gentlemen tonight. They will be dearly missed by all who knew them.

Huge congratulations to our Levenshulme Shop manager, Steve O'Malley, who is joining us this evening, on being nominated in the Racing Post Betting Shop Manager of the Year and reached the latter stages of the competition – I am so very proud of you.

My heartfelt thanks goes to Kevin Boothby, who has done so much for the greyhound industry and to Billy Brennan & James Chalkley who have worked tirelessly to ensure the Derby remains a success. Thanks also to Emily Wallis, Joe Conneely and Simon Nott for providing such wonderful content and interviews throughout the competition and to Dave Clark for his impeccable interviewing skills at our preview night and lunch. I'm also very grateful to Jonathan Kay & SIS, the Racing Post, the Greyhound Star and the GBGB for their promotional support this year it is very much appreciated.

To my Star team, especially David Stewart & Kim Sanzone (who ensure everything runs smoothly behind the scenes), also Kaan Hughes (for his fantastic previews & work at the track) & Martin 'Lofty' Chapman (for manning the pitch with Kaan) thank you for your hard work throughout the Derby but don't be late for work on Monday!

Last but not least, to the connections of the finalists, I wish each and every one of you, excitement, joy and success, have a wonderful & memorable evening and I hope that, like me, you have enjoyed the ride!

kindest Regards

Trap 1 Early pacer who arrives in good form, will need trapping boots to defend rail

Trap 2 Capable sort but tricky draw flanked by speed, must get the start right

Trap 3 Irish Laurels champion with a fast start in his locker, will need it to get across

Trap 4 St Leger champion and joint track record holder, big player but tricky draw

Trap 5 Classy and experienced Irish performer, drawn wider than ideal

Trap 6 Behind T1 last time out, draw gives him a chance to reverse that form

Clarky's Choice: Trap 3 - High Trend

The Mark Siddall Prime Beef Memorial Trophy is held in memory of a much-loved man; a father, brother and a son, who dedicated his life to his love of greyhounds and greyhound racing.

Mark's passion for greyhounds began at the early age of 16 when he returned home to his mother's house with both a greyhound and a fruit machine. His mother watched his obsession with greyhounds grow and not only become his whole world, but one that he loved so very much and lived for.

Mark's love of greyhounds was paramount in his life, until recently a cruel twist of fate took that away from him. Mark was not only a keen greyhound trainer and racer, but also dedicated a lot of his time to rehoming retired greyhounds within a charity. He will be sadly missed in both our world, but also in the world of greyhound racing.

Sadly in May 2023, Mark was involved in a road accident, from which he never fully recovered, and sadly passed from the world on the May 4th 2024.

One dream of Marks was to race on the Greyhound Derby Final Day, so we have dedicated this race to him, which we hope is the next best thing.

Mark leaves behind his Mother Eileen, brothers Dean and Shaun, and his five children, Clare, Arron, Erica, Rachael and Tommy, and 7 grandchildren. May he rest in peace now with his brother Wayne, who also sadly passed in March 2023.

Please join us in remembering the life of Mark Siddall with this event which has been sponsored by his five children, Clare, Arron, Erica, Rachael, Tommy and his mother Eileen.

We also would like to give special mention to Shaun Siddall, Mark's brother-in-law, for all that he did for Mark in the last year of his life.

"this is to my best friend forever, I so love you" - from his best friend, Ian, who will miss him dearly.

"I hope it meant as much to you as it did to me" from Erica.

- Trap 1 Ticking over nicely, inside draw is a positive but must hold her pitch
- Trap 2 Behind T3 over 712m last time, must gain first run on that rival
- Trap 3 TV Trophy runner-up and a staying superstar, can prove too good
- Trap 4 Local hope, wins are few and far between, likely outsider
- Trap 5 Lightly raced over extreme distances, well regarded sort not to be overlooked
- Trap 6 Stay well but takes a while to warm to the task, ran well here in the past

Clarkey's Choice: Trap 3 - Ballymac Taylor
